

Plans Made for Lutheran Church in North Torrance

King of Love Lutheran church is being organized in North Torrance and will have its first worship service on Sunday, January 15, 1956 at 10:45 a.m. The temporary place of worship will be announced at a later date.

Rev. Maynard Midthun is the pastor of the new congregation which is being formed. The Evangelical Lutheran church through its Home Mission Department has purchased the parsonage at 3226 West 179th street. Land will be purchased and construction of the new church will begin in the near future. Funds are made available through the Church Extension Fund loan plan.

Assisting Mr. Midthun for the next few months is Miss Dorothy Murray who is conducting a house survey in the area of the proposed church.

Little Boy from New York Will Portray Littlest Angel

Bobby Renfrow, the son of Mrs. Madeleine Renfrow, will play the touching role of the Littlest Angel in the ACCENT: theatre! production of the modern Christmas classic, which will be presented under the auspices of the Retail Merchants association on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, December 19, 20, and 21, in Santaland in El Prado park.

The Renfrow family have recently moved to Torrance from New York city where Bobby was a Conover model and television actor.

Representing the Cherubim will be: Carol Foss, Joan and Lynn Renfrow, Dierdre, Denny, and Dion Dyer, and Pamela Boswell.

Alternating as narrators of the appealing little story are Mrs. Frank Kelley and Mrs. R. A. Kelsey.

Robert Adams will play the Good Gatekeeper.

Members of the Celestial Choir include: Mrs. W. C. Boswell jr., Miss Barbara Whitley, Mrs. Iris Steffans, Mrs. Robert Foss, Ed Olson, Ray Darling, John Hudson, and Harry Newman. The choir director is Mrs. Harry Newman.

Soloist
Mrs. Newman will be soloist on "Ave Maria" and "Oh, Holy Night." Mrs. Newman was a concert singer before her marriage.

Marion Humphreys is technical director. Joan Crane is the costume mistress, and costume supervision will be by Mrs. H. F. Heinlein.

The production is under the direction of Noralee Benedict. Mrs. Louis Dyer will be the accompanist.

As the narrator tells the story, it will be acted out in pantomime, and the choir will provide background music and thematic songs to co-ordinate the action.

ISLAND MAID . . . Dolores Janes has appeared on television shows, doing her Hawaiian dance. She is eight years old, and in the third grade at Fern Avenue school. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Janes, of 917 Acacia.

Church Will Note Two Anniversaries

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist church, 24730 Narbonne ave., will celebrate two anniversaries on Sunday, December 11. The church will be eleven years old and the pastor, Robert A. Wells, will start his sixth year with the church.

The church was organized in a rented building on Lomita blvd. At that time there were 13 members. Less than two years after organization, the store building at 248th St. and Narbonne Ave. was purchased and converted to church use. A new building was completed the Sunday before Easter in 1954.

The church soon found the new buildings were not enough and adjoining property was purchased in 1955. Two morning services are now needed to care for those attending the worship service each Sunday morning.

Dolores Janes, 8 Years Old, Is Familiar TV Face

Torrance has a young lady who is going places in the world of show business at a very early age.

Dolores Janes, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Janes of 917 Acacia, who is eight years old, has become used to seeing her face on television every week.

She was chosen from 200 contestants to appear on the "Rocket to Stardom" show with her Hula dance, and so captured the audience, that the sponsors decided to use her picture as part of their regular publicity on television.

Breakfast Set by Committee

The friendship committee of the Women of the Moose will hold a friendship breakfast in Compton on Sunday, December 11. Dorothy Smith, chairman, has announced. The breakfasts are held the second Sunday of every other month.

There will be a friendship dinner at the Moose Hall in Torrance on Saturday, December 10, for members of the committee and their husbands. Wilverta Helman is in charge of the dinner.

The library committee is planning a taco lunch for Thursday, December 22, at the home of Marguerite Baudin. Ermanelle Benton is chairman.

She appeared on the Harry Copland show and received high praise from him for her talent.

She will soon audition for the "Harry Owens Royal Hawaiian" show on television.

She has been studying Hula and Tahitian dancing with Napua of the Royal Hawaiians, the ukelele with Johnny Ukelele, and the "Knife Dance" with Chief Santini of "The Seven Seas", all in Hollywood.

Mr. and Mrs. James decided to let their daughter study this particular form of dance because, even as a baby, she loved to keep time to the melodies of the Royal Hawaiians and try to make up steps to fit the music.

Family Cooperation
The Janes family, which includes another daughter, Carol, offers complete cooperation to Dolores in her chosen career. Her mother makes all of her costumes and the family members are always ready to help her with school work to make sure that she does not fall behind in her class.

Dolores' third grade teacher at the Fern Avenue school said that there was no worry about the child's career interfering with school, because she is extremely intelligent.

Dolores thinks that a little extra work on lessons is well worth the dancing that she loves.
